A neighborly day for a beauty,
Would you be mine?
Could you be mine?

I have always wanted to have a neighbor
Just like you,
I've always wanted to live in a neighborhood
With you,
So, let's make the most of this beautiful day
Since we're together we might as well say,
Would you be mine, could you be mine,
Won't you be my neighbor?
Won't you please, won't you please,
Please won't you be my neighbor?

It's a beautiful day in our neighborhood!
Won't you love thy neighbor?

In your Packet! FAITH AT HOME

Continuing the Sunday school conversation into the home.

Owner of the Packet: Commitment - It is God's original plan for families to stay together.

Owner of the Packet: "...from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." For the reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate." (MAT 19:4-6)

Message/Heart of the Day: A commitment is a pledge. Commitment means a person is dedicated to something or someone. Marriage is one of the most important commitments we could ever make in our lives. In our world today, families are being torn apart, divorced, and pulled in all directions. When families are coming apart, how do we help them to be joined together again? It was just meant to stay together that's what we do in our own home to keep our commitments, even when it might be easier to just give up!

Faith at Home and Us:

- Choose what is commitment to family, friends, job, ... with your life
- Encourage each other to keep commitments
- Ask for forgiveness if you've had someone that is committed to you
- Do something nice to show your appreciation for someone committed to you

Prayer of the Week: Heavenly Father, we pray for our families. Some of them are coming apart. Help us to renew our commitments and help our families to stay together. The way you want for it to be.

Original Author: From the 1980s by the Women of Georgia

According to a tradition, St. George (heathen) visited a pagan to save a girl that was presented to the pagan for food. The pagan condition for the girl was that she give up the God who was her father, the pagan. St. George refused, when St. George returned to the marketplace, he was also called the dragon of faith. The wall between the dragon and St. George was a white horse, joining the dragon with his gear in a circle and the dragon's head and neck were cut and was kept through experience. St. George is known as the dragon slayer and the dragon slayer. St. George is one of the rightly-revered saints recognized by the Christian Church.

Tootsie Pop Faith
 "The Heart and Soul of a Tootsie roll!"

Proverbs 22:6 NRSV,
 "Train children in the right way, and when old, they will not stray."

"HARD" OUTER SHELL:
 Represents all the "hard" obstacles and difficulties in our lives

INNER TOOTSIE ROLL:
 Represents our hearts

STICK: Represents God and our faith.
