2 Corinthians 5:20 (NIV)

FOR TEENS: About Bartholomew

Our students have heard that according to tradition, Sts. Thaddeus and Bartholomew were the first enlighteners of Armenia, that they spread the good news there and later were martyred. The following is an activity connected with one of the few Scripture references to either of these apostles.

Materials Needed:

posterboard; scissors; markers of various colors; magazines; newspapers; old Sunday school textbooks; glue; paper punch; yarn, string or ribbon

Bartholomew's name suggests that he may have been a special kind of student. "Bar" means son, so Bartholomew was probably "son of Talmai." This was a noble name at the time of Jesus. A talmai was highly regarded in Hebrew circles as a leader of the study of scripture, and Bartholomew may have been one of the special students of that school. In John 1:45 Philip tells Bartholomew, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the
