

The Bible in Worship

1. “Holy, holy, holy” is a familiar phrase said (or sung) in many churches, including ours (Soorp, Soorp). Where does that phrase occur in the Bible?
2. What do you call a fixed set of Bible passages that are to be read in worship on particular days?
3. The Armenian Church still practices “the holy kiss” in the Diving Liturgy. Which New Testament books mention this practice?
4. “Peace be with you” is a part of many of our worship services. Where is that in the Bible?
5. Charismatic churches often “lift up hands to the Lord.” What worshipful book of the Bible mentions this practice?
6. “Glory to God in the highest” is a common worship phrase. In the Gospels, who used these words?
7. “Father, Son and Holy Spirit” are mentioned often in our worship services, but they are mentioned together in only one New Testament book. Which one?
8. Footwashing is still practiced in the Armenian Church. Which is the only Gospel to tell the story of Jesus washing the disciples’ feet?
9. The Lord’s Prayer is found in both Matthew’s and Luke’s Gospels. Which form is ordinarily used in Christian worship?

The Bible in Worship

1. "Holy, holy, holy" is a familiar phrase said (or sung) in many churches, including ours (Soorp, Soorp). Where does that phrase occur in the Bible? Isaiah 6:3
2. What do you call a fixed set of Bible passages that are to be read in worship on particular days? Lectionary
3. The Armenian Church still practices "the holy kiss" in the Diving Liturgy. Which New Testament books mention this practice? Romans 16:16, I Corinthians 16:20, 2 Corinthians 13:12, I Thessalonians 5:26, I Peter 5:14
4. "Peace be with you" is a part of many of our worship services. Where is that in the Bible?
I Peter 5:14
5. Charismatic churches often "lift up hands to the Lord." What worshipful book of the Bible mentions this practice? Psalms 134:2, I Timothy 2:8
6. "Glory to God in the highest" is a common worship phrase. In the Gospels, who used these words? Angels Luke 2:14
7. "Father, Son and Holy Spirit" are mentioned often in our worship services, but they are mentioned together in only one New Testament book. Which one? Matthew 28:19
8. Footwashing is still practiced in the Armenian Church. Which is the only Gospel to tell the story of Jesus washing the disciples' feet? John 13
9. The Lord's Prayer is found in both Matthew's and Luke's Gospels. Which form is ordinarily used in Christian worship? Matthew's