GET TO WORK!

SCRIPTURES:

Paul ended his first letter with more than 15 quick pieces of advice to prepare for Jesus' return. He told the believers to be thankful, to live with others in peace and love, to be full of joy, and to pray often for each other. (Some Final Directions in 1 Thessalonians 5:12-28)

MATERIALS:

- Orange and White Construction paper
- Template (to follow)
- Tape
- Scissors
- Glue
- Hershey Kisses

PREPARATION:

- Print Template (to follow)
- Make sample

DIRECTIONS:

1. Give each student 2 pieces of ORANGE construction paper.
 - To make BASE: Fold one piece of construction paper to make a square. Cut off edge.
 - To make CONE: Roll the other piece of construction paper into a cone shape. Tape.
2. Cut WHITE construction paper into 2-inch strips. Glue 2 strips around the cone, (as pictured).
3. Give students a "Getting to Work!" worksheet. Complete as directed. Fold worksheet and put inside the cone.
OPTIONAL: Place a couple of chocolate kisses inside the cone with worksheet. (Any candy treat will work, but the Hershey's Kiss is in the shape of a construction cone!)
4. Keeping worksheet and Kisses inside, attach CONE to BASE using glue or tape. (Put name on cone!)
5. OPTIONAL: Allow students to share some of their worksheet responses.
6. Place Construction cones around your classroom in a section marked, "Under Construction." Next Sunday, review by asking if students did any "work" this past week. Students who "got the job done" may open their cone and retrieve their treat!
