

Old Testament

1. The Old Testament can be divided into sections depending on the kind of writing it contains. List as many books as you can under each heading below:

LAW

HISTORY

WISDOM

PROPHECY

DEUTEROCANONICAL

2. Many have referred to the prophets as the "conscience" of Israel. Isaiah and Amos were two such prophets. Answer the following questions about each using the books of Isaiah and Amos.

- Who was he?
- What was his general message to the people of Israel?
- How did he fulfill the role of being the "conscience" of Israel?

Some specific passages that will be of help are:

ISAIAH:

- Isaiah's call: chapter 6
- Failure of people: 1:23; 3:13-15; 5:7
- Covetousness: 3:14; 5:8
- Self-indulgence: 3:14-16; 5:23
- Moral depravity: 5:11-12; 5:18-22
- Irreligion: 5:18-23; 28:14-22

AMOS:

- Sovereignty of God over all men and nations: 1:3-2:16
- The problems of Israel: 3:1-6:14
- Irrevocable judgment: 7:1-9:10
- Note of hope: 9:11-15
