

Pentecost

The Holy Spirit

Long ago, the people who helped Jesus Christ were all together. They were thinking about Jesus, and how much they loved him. They were thinking that they wanted to tell everyone about him. They wanted everyone to know about God.

All of a sudden, they felt something wonderful, like a strong and powerful rush of wind. As it touched each one, it made them feel strong and ready to do anything. They knew it was the Holy Spirit of God, coming to be with them. They could not see the Holy Spirit, but they could feel God's power and love.

Do you know what they did next? They traveled all over the world, telling everyone about Jesus Christ and about God's love. Sometimes they got tired, and sometimes they met people who did not like them. But they knew they always had the Holy Spirit with them. They knew God loved them. They knew they could do anything, with God's Spirit to help them.

Jesus once said:

The wind blows wherever it wishes to; you hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. That is how it is with all who are born of the Spirit.

John 3:8

