

A PROPHET IS BORN

The time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave (3 across) to a son. When it came time to name the child, neighbors and (4 down) wanted to name him Zechariah after his father, but Elizabeth said, "Not so; he shall be called (7 down)." They said, "none of your kindred is known by that" name and they asked Zechariah, the child's father, what he would have him called. He asked for a (1 across) tablet and wrote, "His name is John." Immediately his mouth was (6 down) and his (11 across) loosed, and he spoke, (3 down) God. The word spread and the people wondered saying, "What then will this child be?" For the (9 across) of the Lord was with him. His father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy (10 across) and prophesied, saying, "And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most (5 down); and you will go before the Lord to (8 across) his ways." And John grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness till the day of his manifestation to (2 down).

Diocese. Your own Sunday School staff will have already attended one by the time this issue is in print. So far, these "faith and method workshops" have proven very fertile ground for the discussion of the Church's effect on our every-day choices. But Bible-study classes, informal group discussion within church auxiliaries, and other types of Christian gatherings provide ideal opportunities for reflection.
