

WHO DID IT?

Draw a line between the thing done (left column) with the person who did them (right column.)

- |   |                              |
|---|------------------------------|
| 1 Told a desperately ill king to release a prisoner in order to be healed.                      | Khosrovidoukht               |
| 2 Celebrated the first Armenian Divine Liturgy in the U.S.                                      | John Chrysostom              |
| 3 Refused to let an arrogantly sinful king enter the doors of the Church.                       | Hovsep Vartabed Sarajian     |
| 4 Was changed by the preaching of an apostle, and made a pagan king very angry.                 | St. Nersess the Grace-Filled |
| 5 Scolded an empress for her proud ways in some famous sermons.                                 | Catholicos Houssic           |
| 6 Established hospitals, orphanages, monasteries in Armenia.                                    | St. Nersess the Great        |
| 7 Worked to unite the separated parts of the Christian Church, especially the Eastern Orthodox. | St. Sandoukht                |

WHO DID IT?

Key

Draw a line between the thing done (left column) with the person who did them (right column.)

- |   |   |                              |
|---|---|------------------------------|
| 1 | Told a desperately ill king to release a prisoner in order to be healed.                      | Khosrovidoukht               |
| 2 | Celebrated the first Armenian Divine Liturgy in the U.S.                                      | John Chrysostom              |
| 3 | Refused to let an arrogantly sinful king enter the doors of the Church.                       | Hovsep Vartabed Sarajian     |
| 4 | Was changed by the preaching of an apostle, and made a pagan king very angry.                 | St. Nersess the Grace-Filled |
| 5 | Scolded an empress for her proud ways in some famous sermons.                                 | Catholicos Houssic           |
| 6 | Established hospitals, orphanages, monasteries in Armenia.                                    | St. Nersess the Great        |
| 7 | Worked to unite the separated parts of the Christian Church, especially the Eastern Orthodox. | St. Sandoukht                |

